It is to declare that I have referred Landless Tenant Farmers (LTFS) guidelines issued in the G.O.M.No.96 by Agriculture & Cooperation (AgrU) Dept dtd.19.09.2019 and ensured that:

1. The tenant farmer/family member shall not have any Agriculture/Horticulture/ Sericulture Land of his own.
2. This Landless Tenant Farmer is not from/within the owner's family.
3. Minimum Economical Lease Extent is verified and ensured.
4. Irrespective of Size of Holding, the benefit will be extended to only to this cultivator per Land Owner family between whom there will be multiple lease agreements.
5. Only One Tenant / Cultivator belonging to SC, ST, BC and Minority Category will get benefit along with Land Owner Farmers. In the case of multiple tenants to a single landowner, preference is given to the ST tenant for providing financial benefit followed by SC, BC, Minority tenants in the order of preference as per the existence of such categories.
6. In Tribal areas, as per the Statute, only Tribal Cultivators/ tenants are recognized.
7. A Land Less Tenant / Cultivator having multiple lease agreements is eligible to get the benefit as a single unit. The lease agreement entered between Landless Tenant/ Cultivator and a Marginal Farmer who is residing in the same village will not be entertained.
8. Cultivators/ Tenants cultivating the lands of Owners of excluded categories are eligible for the benefit under Rythu Bharosa.
9. Tenants cultivating Inam lands/ Endowment lands will be extended benefit as per the recorded evidence available with Department of Endowments.
